MORNINGTON PENINSULA REGIONAL GALLERY

The Mornington Peninsula Regional Gallery is one of the most exciting public galleries in Victoria. Presenting a rich and dynamic program of exhibitions and events, the Gallery is renowned for its unique artists' retreat series of exhibitions and its biennial acquisitive exhibition the National Works on Paper. The Gallery has presented some of the best travelling exhibitions from across the country including the iconic Archibald Prize exhibition. The outstanding Permanent Collection features contemporary works on paper and artworks with Mornington Peninsula cultural significance. We invite and welcome your involvement and support.

BECOME A FRIEND

Join Friends of MPRG and be part of the vibrant cultural life of the Mornington Peninsula. Friends memberships support the Mornington Peninsula Regional Gallery's program of exhibitions and acquisitions for the Permanent Collection. Friends of MPRG also support the ongoing development of the Gallery. In return, Friends have the opportunity to take advantage of a wide range of benefits.
